

SHORT BIOGRAPHY

HARI SETYAWAN

Hari Setyawan was born in Surakarta, Central Java, on March 8th, 1982.

After he finished Senior High School at Semarang in 2000, he continue to study Archaeology at Archaeological Department, Gadjahmada University and graduate in 2007 with specialization in ancient civilization of Hindhu/ Buddhist. Soon after graduation he worked as Researcher Assitant in Centre For Archaeology Banjarmasin, Kalimantan for 2 years in 2007-2008. While continue the study for his Master Degree at Architectural Department of Diponegoro University in 2009, he worked for Central Java Provincial Museum, Semarang. In 2009 he was accepted as government employees at Ministry of Education and Culture, assigned for Borobudur Conservation Office in Magelang, Central Java until today. He finished and obtained his master degree of Architecture in 2012 with the thesis title "Timber Construction of Ancient Java on The Karmawibhanga Temple Relief of Borobudur".

Eversince he worked for Borobudur Conservation Office, he had conduct several research not only for Borobudur Temple but also for another heritage. His latest research is "Research for Matching The Head with The Body of Buddhist Statue on Borobudur Temple" and "Conservation of Liangan Archaeological Sites, Temanggung, Central Java"

Hari Setyawan

(archaeologist and temple conservation staff)

Ministry of Education and Culture

Borobudur Conservation Office

Jalan Badrawati Borobudur, Magelang Po Box.56553, Central Java, Indonesia

Office Phone. +6293788175/ +6293788225

Office fax. +6293788367

Mobile. +628122537548

E mail. sivanata_raja@yahoo.com