KUALA LUMPUR -- Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin today launched the Malaysian Institute of Architects (PAM) donation campaign to fund its headquarters project.

Through its Education Fund, PAM launched an architectural design competition in April 2012 to engage members' input to build PAM's new headquarters.

Partner sponsor of the PAM Centre Donation Campaign, Akzo Nobel Paints (Msia) Sdn Bhd (Dulux) managing director CW Goh said both parties (Dulux and PAM) will donate RM5,000 each (total RM10,000) to two charity home.

"We are very proud of our continuous partnership with PAM which we have to grow from strength to strength. It has definitely opened up opportunities for us to service the community in efforts of fostering healthy lifestyle within the Malaysian community," he said in his speech.

Construction of the PAM's headquarters is expected to start in October this year and due to be completed by end of 2014. – BERNAMA
